Jesus said:
"I am the light of the world.
He who follows me should not walk in darkness but have the light of life."

John 8:12.

...Also, the spirit carries with it the gene of Divinity. God is with us, as much as we are in God...

...But for the divine light to stand out from the human darkness, the educational processes of life must work on us, on the rough path of the millennia.

Educate, and you will transform the irrational age into intelligence, intelligence into humanity, and humanity into angelhood.

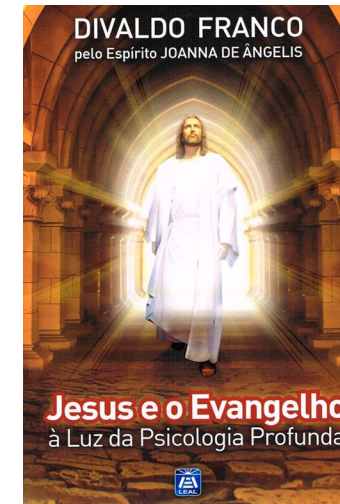

Educate, and you will build a paradise on Earth. If we know that the Lord dwells in us, let us perfect our lives to manifest Him.
